Call for Meeting of First Army Corps Committee-Arranging for Fireworks.

executive committee on the thirty-sixth national encampment of the G. A. R. will be Made expressly for the held tonight at the Riggs House at 8 o'clock. Chairman Warner and his associate chairmen of the subcommittees will tive committee a full statement of all the tive committee a full statement of all the preparations for the encampment—a list of all expenditures made, a statement of all the preparations which are now concluded, a view of the entire encampment as now contemplated and a balance sheet of the contemplated and a balance sheet of the finances of the committee. The indications are that the entire committee will be present, and that the meeting will conclude what may be termed the general preliminaries for the encampment. What follows this meeting will be merely an adjustment

Official Invitation.

Chairman B. H. Warner of the citizens' executive committee, L. M. Saunders of the committee on invitations and William Hahn of the committee on printing have agreed on a form for the official invitation to the encampment, and arranged for its execution by the Law Reporter Company of this city. About 2,000 are to be issued, the list of specially invited guests being designed to include every officer of the national and state governments whose position would make his presence a matter of interest to the veterans. Among these the President, the members of his cabinet, the members of both houses of Congress, the justices of the United States and District of Columbia Supreme Courts and Courts of Appeal, the governors of the several states and the of-ficials of the District of Columbia will be included as a matter of course.

The invitation will take the form of a plain, heavy card, which will be dec-orated to correspond generally with the invitations issued from the White House. It will, however, have two distinctive features an engraved fac simile of the badge worn left-hand corner and an engraving of the Capitol dome in the lower right-hand cor-ner. The inscription will be as follows: "The citizens of the national capital re-quest the honor of your presence during the thirty-sixth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic during the week beginning October 6, 1902, Washing-BRAINARD H. WARNER, Chairman of the Executive Committee.

LGRIN M. SAUNDERS, Chairman of the Committee on Invitations."

Accompanying this invitation will be a eparate card, inscribed as follows: "A prompt reply is requested, addressed to L. M. Saunders, chairman invitation committee, corner 12th and G streets north-west, Washington, D. C."

Secretary Bulkley to Gov. Montague. Secretary Bulkley has sent the following letter to Andrew J. Montague, the governor of Virginia: "The thirty-sixth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in Washington in October, beginning on the 6th day of that month. The indication the 6th day of that month are result and case of the first stardy well that well are stardy well as the first stardy w tions are that great numbers will visit the battlefields near the nation's capital, and particularly those conflicts in the state

"It is quite unnecessary to attempt to suggest to a Virginian a disposition of that hospitality for which he is justly famed, but I am sure that any courtesies that the people of that state may see fit to extend to the Union veterans, during their visit, will be as deeply appreciated as they will be gratefully remembered."

A call for a meeting of the 1st Army Corps has been issued by Chairman William W. Dudley of the reunion committee n the following form:

"There will be a meeting of the resident members of the 1st Army Corps with the remion committee of the 1st Corps, Monday, September 15, at 7:30 p.m., in the red parlor of the Ebbitt House. Please at-tend. Phis will be the last meeting before he G. A. R. encampment." Chairman W. Clifford Long of the fireworks committee met Mr. Frank Dietz, the representative of the Payne Fireworks Company, this morning and with the latter arranged at the War Department the preliminaries to the occupation of the monument grounds. It is expected workmen will go to work in the park indicated by Mon-day next at the latest. Cortland Sanders Post, No. 21, of Philadelphia has a deputation in the city arranging to obtain quarters with meals for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of encampment week. About 150 men are expected to attend from this post. The unwisdom of delay was never more manifest than in the experience of this post, which now finds it almost impossible to find suitable lodgings. Andrew Crawford Post, No. 6, of the Department of Ohio, which will march 100 men in the parade, has been quartered at No. 1702 F street northwest.

Mr. Dayton at Headquarters.

Representative A. G. Dayton of West Virginia, who is chairman of the congressional committee for the coming encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, called at headquarters today. He came from West Virginia to obtain searchlights from the Navy Department for the use of the committee on illuminations during the encamp-ment week, and to attend to other matters before the departments in which the encampment is interested. Mr. Dayton says the attendance from his district will very large, although the campaign at that time will have assumed vigorous proportions. He expects a large vote, but thinks there are really no new nor important issues at stake.

Reception to Commander-in-Chief. The national president of the Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. Calista Robinson Jones, has issued invitations to the reception which the Woman's Relief Corps will tender Gen. Ell Torrance, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and his official staff. The invitations are very elegant affairs and are embossed with the coat-of-arms of the United States in colors The reception will be held Wednesday even ing. October 8, from 8 to 9 o'c'ock vention Hall. While invitations are issued to several thousand people, the reception is public, and all friends of the Woman's Relief Corps will be cordially welcomed by the national president. Mrs. Lida A. Oldroyd, president of the Department of Potomac, and Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey have been invited to assist Mrs. Jones in receiving.

The following named ladies of the national staff will assist the mitiona.

Mrs. Lida Tomer Miller, national president of the Ladies' Aid, Sons of Veterans, has accepted the invitation of Mrs. Mus-sey, chairman of the woman's citizens' committee, for herself and staff to assist Mrs. Mussey in receiving on Wednesday evening. October 8. Mrs. Miller's official evening. October 8. Mrs. Miller's official staff, which is included in the invitation, is as follows: Mrs. Lida Tomer Miller, president: Mrs. Blanche T. Hemstreet, vice president; Mrs. Margaret Howey Coe, junior vice president; Mrs. Estell W. Harbour, Mrs. Mary L. Warren, members of council; Mrs. Julia A. Moynahan, secretary; Mrs. Katie E. Col. A. Noel Blakeman, chief of staff to

Gen. Torrance and chief marshal of the veterans' parade, believes the line of the next encampment will include fully 40,000 men, and thus equal the parade at Cleveland. This estimate is decidedly tentative, but from Col. Blakeman's bearing it is rather below his expectations than above them. By calculating the number of general visitors on the basis adopted by the railroads a line of 40,000 veterans means an attendance of over 50,000 old soldiers, accompanied by about 300,000 civilians. The total attendance on the encampment from other communities would thus be over 350,-

Number Underestimated.

State estimates received at headquarters at various times would indicate, however, that even this large appropriation will not cover the crowd. Illinois expects to send 10,000 veterans and 60,000 civilians. Pennsylvania expects to exceed the attendance of any other state. Mr. D. S. Wilder, division agent of the Baltimore and Ohio and chief of staff in the Department of Ohio, prophesies an attendance of 30,000 from the buckeye state. These three commonwealths alone would thus bring to Washington

Mr. Wilder suggested the following points as a basis for his estimate as to Ohio: That Wells Post, of which he is a member, will attend with 75 men; McCoy Post, with 150 men; the G. A. R. drill corps, with about 50 men, making a veteran attendance from Columbus alone of about 300; that

Springfield and Dayton are to send about 150 veterans each; that Memorial Post of Cleveland, of which Benator Hanna is a member, will bring 300 men and the hand of being engaged to accommodate the general visitors from that state, and that the interest throughout Onio is widespread and

Supposed to Be the Work of Trusted Employes. A dispatch from Paris yesterday says: Several of the morning newspapers today mentioned a rumor that the Bank of France had been robbed of an important sum, intimating that it was the work of burglars. The Patrie this afternoon published an interview with an official of the bank, who The robbery amounted to $44,000 in gold It was discovered yesterday, but was kept quiet on the advice of the police. It was not the work of burglars. The gold was taken in the daytime, evidently by a person or persons having access to the cash vault, but suspicion yet rests on nobody.'

NO WISH TO BE PRESIDENT.

Tom L. Johnson Merely Aspires to Be a Mayor.

A dispatch from Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday says: Mayor Johnson, replying to an inquiry from a Springfield, Ohio, newspaper asking if he was a candidate for governor and finally for President, said:

"I am not a candidate for anything excep mayor next spring.
"It is my belief that my field for usefulness lies very close to the city of Cleveland. "Yours very truly, "TOM L. JOHNSON."

Skillful Bird Dogs.

From Outing. Roading denotes that a dog is following a trail toward the birds by the footscent, as a man, in an analogous manner might follow a flock of sheep by watching their tracks. Drawing denotes that a dog is approaching birds by the scent in the air, as a man might follow a flock of sheep by the long line of dust hovering over and around the trail. Drawing is considered a much superior manner to roading. It is commonly marked by greater accuracy, quickness of execution and dash of man-

Milwankee A dispatch from Milwaukee, Wis., yesterday says: Seventy-five thousand persons went to the Wisconsin State Fair to see two locomotives meet each other in a duel. The State Board of Agriculture had constructed a special railway track a thousand feet long in the field within the race course. The center of this track was directly opposite the center of the amphitheater. The engines chosen for the battle were of the regulation pattern of ten years ago. At each end of the special track was a panting locomtive, seemingly eager for the fray. There was great excitement when the engine drivers mounted their cabs, threw wide open the throttles and pumped off in hurry. Almost in the center of the field the locomotives came together. The duelists lifted their bulks nearly upright and went at each other as do wrestiers. Battered and broken, snarling and hissing, a cloud of steam enveloping their shapeless masses, the duelists clasped each

ner. Pointing is the stop which the dog makes when he has definitely located the birds, or when he thinks he has done so. It is the preliminary pause to accurately determine the whereabouts of the hidden birds before he springs to capture. If he misjudges and springs in the wrong direc-tion, all his pains and labor come to nothing. Ir his training, he is encouraged to point, but is prohibited springing, so that after a time he makes his point and holds it stanchly. If by any act, willful or otherwise, he alarms the birds, and they take-wing, it is called a flush. If the dog, when going up wind on game, flushes the birds,
